

The March bulletin of Hope Chamber of Commerce carried these significant items:

The up and coming broiler industry in Hempstead county nearly equaled the Grade A dairy business in dollar sales for the month. Broilers brought a total of $20,000 against $24,755 for milk.

Hope utility connections increased over March a year ago. Electric connections were 3,656 against 3,603; water meters this March totaled 2,931 as compared with 2,899 a year ago; and gas connections were 2,899 against 2,857.

And finally, postal receipts, always considered to be one of the best indices to the state of business, were up 9 per cent over March a year ago at Hope Post Office.

Not so many years ago the republic of Argentina stood before the world as the sole example of a Latin American nation and government which for wealth and progress and culture rivaled the United States. Argentina was particularly praised for the stability of its administration and its fine financial rating — the bonds of the Argentine took rank with U. S. government bonds around the world.

That was not so many years ago. But in these few years a fellow named Juan D. Peron has talked himself into dictatorial power — and talked Argentina into deep trouble.

You read on this page yesterday the Associated Press account of how pro-Peron mobs stormed through the magnificent city of Buenos Aires looting and burning the homes of the dictator's opposition. The world-famous Jockey club, social center of the Argentine, went up in flames — as did the headquarters of all opposition political parties except the Communists.

The police sat idly by while the mobs did their work.

The reason is obvious. Peron has mismanaged Argentina into inflation and near-bankruptcy. His own party is torn by dispute — so gravely that only the other day he had to get rid of his late wife's brother, a long-time political aide.

And now his capital police egg the mob on to destroy his political opposition. There is no editorial voice to protest, because Peron long since closed down La Prensa, largest, most influential Spanish language newspaper in the world.

These are evil days for the Argentine — as evil days are always produced by evil men elevated to arbitrary power by the cowardice and corruption that lurk in the hearts of the common people. Without their connivance one, Juan D. Peron never could have risen to power and Argentina's name would still have meant "something fine and honorable around the world."

Group Slashes First Money Bill by 61%

24 Independent U. S. Agencies Feel the Bite

WASHINGTON (UP)—The House Appropriations Committee began the "Republican Congress" budget-balancing drive today with a whopping 61 percent cut in the first money bill for the next fiscal year.

It voted to stop all new public housing construction and sent to the floor a bill appropriating $491,020,493 for 24 independent federal agencies in the 1953 fiscal year starting July 1.

That was $721,424,697, or 61 percent below the estimates in the original budget submitted by President Truman.

Although no exact comparison was available, it was also a cut of more than $400,000,000 from the revised Eisenhower administration budget.

However, $395,744,000 of the cut in the Eisenhower administration budget appeared to be bookkeeping transaction. The committee accomplished it by refusing to earmark treasury funds for the government's annual contribution to the federal employees' retirement fund and for the "interest" earned by the fund.

The committee said it was not cutting down on payments to beneficiaries of the fund which has been gradually building up each year. So the action will not reduce federal spending in fiscal 1954 or in the near future.

This is significant because spending determines whether the budget is balanced. Republican Continued on Page Two

City Employee Pay Hikes Range From $5 to $25

Hope City Employees, from the lowest paid job to the top position, all received raises last night in a special meeting of the council. The increases will cost the city some $518.20 monthly or $6,218.40 a year, effective on May 1.

Last night's action climaxed a long discussion on wage increases that started last year, at which time some city department employees received hikes. Since that time Water and Light, Plant, Linemen wrangled out a $15 monthly blanket increase.

The increases ranged from $5 to $25 a month. Water and Light Department employees got $15 hikes and hour men received five cents an hour boost while the superintendent received $25 more and an engineer $20. Combined increases will cost the plant some $368.20 monthly.

City employee raises were by departments: Two Cemetery workers, $10 monthly; Firemen $15 each including the chief; Restroom caretaker, Mayor's stenographer and court clerk $10 each; Street Department skilled men and equipment operators $15, balance $10; Health Dept. five cents hourly to $15 for department heads; City Hall Janitor $10 and city dump caretaker $10.

Highest Paid Actress Likes America But Wants to Visit When She Is Free to Be Free

By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK (UP)—I love your skyscrapers—they are like stretching tentacles, pleading for the sky," said the world's highest paid actress.

Then Anna Magnani of Italy leaned back in bed and took a thoughtful puff on her cigar. So I leaned back, too—in a chair by the bed—and took a puff on the cigar she had given me.

It actually is called a cigarillo—a slender plastic-tipped cigar larger than a king-size cigarette and popular with both men and women in parts of Europe. Anna likes them, but smokes only two or three a week.

"They are sent to me by my favorite admirer—my son, Luca," she explained. Luca, who is 11, is in school in Switzerland.

Anna, who recently completed an Italian film called "Bellissima," was so worried by her first five days in America that when she called at her hotel suite she decided to be interviewed in bed. She wore a yellow pajama trimmed in blue. She has a long midnight mane, frame a face of Roman gold, and as she leaned back against the pillow she looked like a tawny, well-fed lioness—violence in repose.

"First, I interview you," said Anna. "You like Italian women?"

"Yes."

"Do you like me?"

"Yes."

That ended her interview. So I took up the questioning.

"Do you like American men?"

"I would like to marry one and find out."

If she does, he'll be a lucky fellow. Anna is reported to get $125,000 a picture, plus $1,000 a day overtime, and the Italian income tax is hardly even the nuisance that a sales tax is in this country. One American spaghetti manufacturer is said to have phoned her and asked what she would want to endorse his product. "Oh, about $50,000," said Anna, and the starlet manufacturer immediately wired her a check for $50,000 and a check for $50,000.

General Tells Why Output of Arms Delayed

WASHINGTON (UP)—The Army's chief of ordnance told senators today the Korean War had been under way 18 months before the Army was given effective priorities for producing ammunition.

This testimony came from Maj. Gen. E. L. Ford to a Senate Armed Services subcommittee during his explanation of why there was no real ammunition production until two years after the war began in June 1950.

Ford said the ordnance corps and private contractors early in 1951 thought they would be given "all the resources and priorities that go with such an emergency."

But, he added, the necessary resources and priorities were not provided by higher authority the Continued on Page Two

Soviet Press Appears Kind to President

By EDDY GILMORE
MOSCOW (UP)—The Soviet press reported President Eisenhower's foreign policy speech with unusual speed and a lack of abuse.

Some of the foreign diplomats in Moscow believe there is a good chance of some sort of official answer to the President. The more optimistic picture the U. S. and the Soviet Union as on the verge of easing world tension and possibly settling some of their outstanding differences.

In 10 years of covering Moscow news, this correspondent does not recall any time when the Soviet press acted so quickly as in reporting Eisenhower's address. Pravda appeared with its account only a few hours after the President addressed the American Society of Newspaper Editors.

The Soviet press and radio devoted 361 words of report and comment on Eisenhower's speech, indicating they regard it as an interesting and important statement on world affairs.

All papers published the same story—a Tass dispatch from New York—and Moscow radio read the message several times.

Pravda gave it a prominent place in its foreign news page, just below an account of U. N. proceedings. The other papers similarly used it in conspicuous positions.

Bell Manager Outlines Firm's Expansion

By LEON HATCH
LITTLE ROCK (UP)—General Manager Warren E. Bray today said that since 1946, Southern Bell Telephone Company has increased the number of telephones in Arkansas by 61 per cent.

However, he added that to do so, the company had to increase its net investment in the state by 300 per cent.

Bray was the final company witness before the Arkansas Public Service Commission as Bell completed direct testimony in support of its application for rate increases of 3.8 million dollars yearly.

After Bray finished, attorneys said the hearing would be recessed until May 11, when cross-examination of Bell witnesses is scheduled to begin.

The company is seeking to make permanent a 2.3 million dollar annual rate increase now being collected under bond. In addition, it is asking the Commission to authorize a 1.5 million dollar increase.

Sign Name to Peek at State Welfare Roll

LITTLE ROCK (UP)—Persons who inspect rolls of welfare recipients—as they are able to do for the first time since a 1953 legislative fact became effective—are being asked to sign their names and addresses to a register.

State Welfare Director A. J. Moss confirmed today that this practice was being followed.

Moss pointed out that the law opening the rolls to inspection forbade using the information for political or commercial purposes.

He said the request that viewers identify themselves was being made in hope that the register might furnish a starting point if the prohibition against political or commercial use was violated.

Moss conceded "It's just a request; if anyone should refuse we could not force him to sign his name."

Copies of the rolls may be inspected at offices of county judges, county clerks and prosecuting attorneys.

Moss said the Welfare Department had asked these officials to keep registers of viewers.

Moss said he did not know whether anyone who inspected a list of welfare recipients had refused to identify himself.

Nor did he have any idea how many persons had inspected the rolls.

Europe Is Heartened by Challenge

By TOM OCHILTREE
LONDON (UP)—President Eisenhower's peace problem heartened Western Europe today.

Many expressed doubts of Russia's reaction. But there also was a swelling tide of hope that the new rulers in the Kremlin might use his moment to relax the East-West conflict.

The first Soviet reaction came quickly. Moscow radio complained that Eisenhower had placed the blame for the international situation on Russian policy "though no facts were given to prove this."

West European foreign offices journalists noted, however, that the Soviet reaction was mild in tone by usual Russian standards, and the Kremlin left itself plenty of maneuvering room.

The liberal Manchester Guardian said editorially: "The President has been enabled to make this statement of policy by the death of Stalin and the signs—as yet imprecise—that the new Soviet government wishes to see a relaxation of the conflict between East and West."

Slaying Charged to Arkansas Youth

MARION (UP)—An Earle, Ark., youth has been bound over to Circuit Court for trial sometime next fall on a charge of first degree murder in the stabbing of S. L. Creel of St. Louis.

William Catlett, 17, waived preliminary hearing here yesterday and was released on $2,500 bond pending trial.

Officers quoted Catlett as saying Creel, 30-year-old cafe operator, forced him to commit an unnatural act after giving him a ride last Sunday.

Creel's body was found beside a road on a farm south of Marion.

Resumption of Peace Talks Nearer, Chinese Agree to Meet Sunday

Moscow Gets Copy of Ike's Challenge

WASHINGTON (UP)—The United States Embassy in Moscow has delivered to the Soviet Foreign Office President Eisenhower's challenge to Russia to end the cold war and join in a great peace program.

Jacob D. Beam, ranking U. S. diplomat to the Kremlin pending completion of formalities by the new ambassador, Charles E. Bohlen, delivered the Eisenhower speech.

He acted under instructions which went from the State Department to U. S. ambassadors and ministers in 70-odd countries. By this means and by use of the Voice of America the United States was embarked on a great campaign to build world-wide support for the President's peace plan, outlined in his address to the American Society of Newspaper Editors (ASNE).

The State Department announced the delivery of the speech text in Moscow along with disclosure of two points which were emphasized in the orders given the envoys abroad.

LONDON (UP)—Soviet Ambassador Andrei Gromyko is being recalled to Moscow and Jakob Malik probably will succeed him, authoritative sources said today.

Gromyko's departure came yesterday on Prime Minister Winston Churchill, who also is handling the foreign office during Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden's illness, and Minister of State Selwyn Lloyd.

PRETORIA, South Africa (UP)—While South Africans have given prime Minister Daniel F. Malan a strong mandate to maintain white supremacy by means of strict racial segregation, Under this mandate, given him in Wednesday's parliamentary election, Malan is expected also to move steadily toward the eventual declaration of a South African republic, completely independent of the British Commonwealth.

Like the first, McCarthy said, the new agreement calls for the owners and agents to "abstain from engaging these ships in trade with Red China, the Soviet-controlled ports of the Far East, or Soviet intra-bloc trade anywhere in the world."

The agreements leave all 295 ships free, however, to carry cargoes from the Western Allies to Communist ports in Europe.

Local Group to Hold Sunday School at McCaskill

The Jet B. Graves Bible Class of the Hope Methodist Church will furnish the Sunday School teacher for the regular third Sunday service at the McCaskill Methodist Sunday School.

Specialist to Test Dipping Vats Wednesday

J. H. Little, representative of the Bureau of Animal Industry and the State Veterinarian's office will be in Hempstead County Wednesday morning, April 22, to charge and test dipping vats.

Any livestock owner with a dipping vat to charge should advise county agent Adams at once. It is not known when Mr. Little will be with us again. It is necessary that each producer have his own dip for charging the vat.

The agreement came less than 15 hours after the U. N. told the Reds it was ready to resume the talks, providing the Reds do no stalling on the last big obstacle to overall exchange of prisoners—the last big obstacle to an armistice.

The U. N. had asked for the talks meeting tomorrow to work out details for starting the new talks. The Reds, however, suggested 11 a. m. Sunday (8 p. m. CST Saturday). The U. N. agreed.

Allied spokesmen said the talks groups probably would do little more than discuss the technical details of resuming full-scale armistice talks.

Allied agreement to get troops into underway came as a Communist convoy carrying disabled American and British prisoners ordered Kaesong, just six miles from the Panmunjom neutral zone where the exchange of sick and wounded was taking place.

Spring Is Apparently on Vacation

A series of snowstorms, a raging dust storm and scattered bursts of rain combined to make most of the country think spring has taken a Florida vacation.

The Sunshine state was about the only section that didn't get a bitter taste of the elements.

Midwesterners were told to expect a cloudy, windy day, with snow flurries near Lake Michigan in Indiana. Chiller temperatures were forecast for Minnesota, Iowa, Illinois, Indiana and Wisconsin.

A developing low pressure area was expected to precipitate a snow storm that will move from the northwestern Iowa and southern Minnesota and spread across the rest of Minnesota and over into Wisconsin and Michigan.

Cold, drizzling rain was forecast for Ohio.

In Minnesota, heavy dust clouds whipped across the state yesterday causing motorists to drive with their lights on.

The East Coast had several rainstorms, and in Pennsylvania the rain squalls changed to snow flurries with a low of 22 degrees expected.

Engagements Aftermath

Dear Miss Dix: My son, a graduate of an out-of-town college, met a girl in the college town and they fell in love. After graduation, he enlisted in the Air Force, and the young people decided to postpone their marriage. We gave them an engagement party, when the girl visited here, and did everything to make her feel welcome. She got many gifts, and her family and friends also sent gifts. The boy returned to camp, and about a year later something went wrong and the engagement was broken. Although both made attempts, at various times, to fix things up, it was finally decided to call off the marriage. Originally, she said she would return the ring and divide the gifts, but apparently she has changed her mind about this, since she is returning nothing at all. What is the procedure for getting things back in a case like this? Also, please caution young folks about becoming involved too hastily with people they scarcely know.

Reason To Be Thankful

Answer: You should be very grateful that the ill-advised engagement was cancelled. The loss of presents, ring, etc., can be charged off to a bad experience from which no permanent injury resulted. The first step in recovering whatever gifts should be returned to your son is to write the girl, or her parents, and tell them what you want. If no response is made, consult a lawyer, but I think the recourse to legal procedure would be rather costly.

Dear Miss Dix: Do you think it is right for my friends to discourage me from marrying a man I love dearly? I am 15, and he is 23. He drinks occasionally, but not when I am with him.

Answer: Bravo for your friends! This is one of the cases in which interference is for the best. Since your mother has apparently, for some reason, not seen fit to break up this dangerous friendship, I hope your friends will be able to influence you to do so.

Dear Miss Dix: Is it right for an engaged woman to accept dates from another man? I am 34 years old and engaged to a woman 29. I work nights, and have discovered that she goes to dances and other places of amusement with another man.

Answer: She is definitely wrong! An engagement should be as binding as any other contract, and since it is a pledge of loyalty, all outside dating is precluded. Break the engagement, is my advice.

Dear Miss Dix: I am the mother of grown boys. When I come to town, which is once or twice a year only, why should I have to stay with my son? He expects me to spend an evening at his home - a whole day in fact! He offers to drive me wherever I want to go, and is very kind in that respect, but I like to stay at my mother's and spend a few hours at my son's.

Answer: Whoops! I could scarcely believe my eyes when reading this letter. With most mothers complaining that they get no attention from married sons, it's rather a switch to find a reverse problem. Naturally, you are entitled to spend your time in the city as you wish, but I do hope you turn down the boy's invitation tactfully.

Dear Miss Dix: I have an acquaintance who is constantly reminding people that he would never be the first to speak to someone with whom he had quarrelled, nor would he apologize - even if he were in the wrong.

Answer: The stubborn, determined refusal to admit wrong, or to apologize, is the sure sign of an immature, selfish, inconsiderate and selfish person. Any person of intelligence is willing to concede that he may sometimes be wrong. The ability to make or accept an apology is the true mark of a gentleman or lady. Many marriages would never reach the divorce court if an admission of fault, or an apology, had been made at the right time.

Diligently Pray For The Work of Your Church.

A Crown of Thorns

"They Crowned Him With Thorns"... what do we crown Him with? Long ago the crowd cried, "Crucify Him." Today, many would prefer to crucify The Son of God than to Confess Him. How is it with you? Do you scorn Him with proud rejection? Are you pressing the painful sharp points of the crown of thorns against His brow? Do you revolt against all His Kingdom stands for? Do you crucify Him anew each day and put Him to open shame?

Blessed to know that He accepted the crown of thorns. He was despised and rejected by men; yet He opened not His mouth. Will you TRUST your soul to Him, or will you THRUST your thorns in Him? Go to church this week. Trust Him, confess Him... help lift that crown of thorns; help carry that cross.

Firm Has an Answer to Fly Problem

Here's an answer to the $64 million dollar question of what to do about the "resistant" fly that is hard to kill with DDT and its successor, Lindane. California Spray-Chemical Corporation claims that its new product, "ORTHO Fly Killer", a combination and a phosphate emulsion, will knock out both "normal" and "resistant" flies, and further, that extensive tests with many generations of flies show no build-up of resistance.

ORTHO Killer is economical to use, in the recommended dosage, around farm animals and does not affect milk when applied according to directions. The Lindane content, in fact, is less than has been used safely around farm animals for years, and only a fly can be quick enough to get a dose of the phosphate before it hydrolyzes into harmless compounds. It is not to be used on animals or around the house.

The formula is used with corn syrup, cane syrup or blackstrap molasses as bait, and according to results of field tests in all sections of the country, gives 90 to 100 per cent control when applied every 24 hours or every 2 or 3 days as necessary.

The mixture (1 1/2 pint ORTHO Fly Killer, 1/4 pint corn syrup, 2 1/2 gallons water) is poured from a sprinkling can onto floors, gutters, walkways, manure piles — wherever flies congregate, with the exception of feed troughs — just after floors are washed down. The diluted mixture is a thin, clear liquid — not syrupy.

Calspray spokesmen point out that the new treatment requires no special equipment and no more time than is required to walk around the dairy, beef or other building areas.

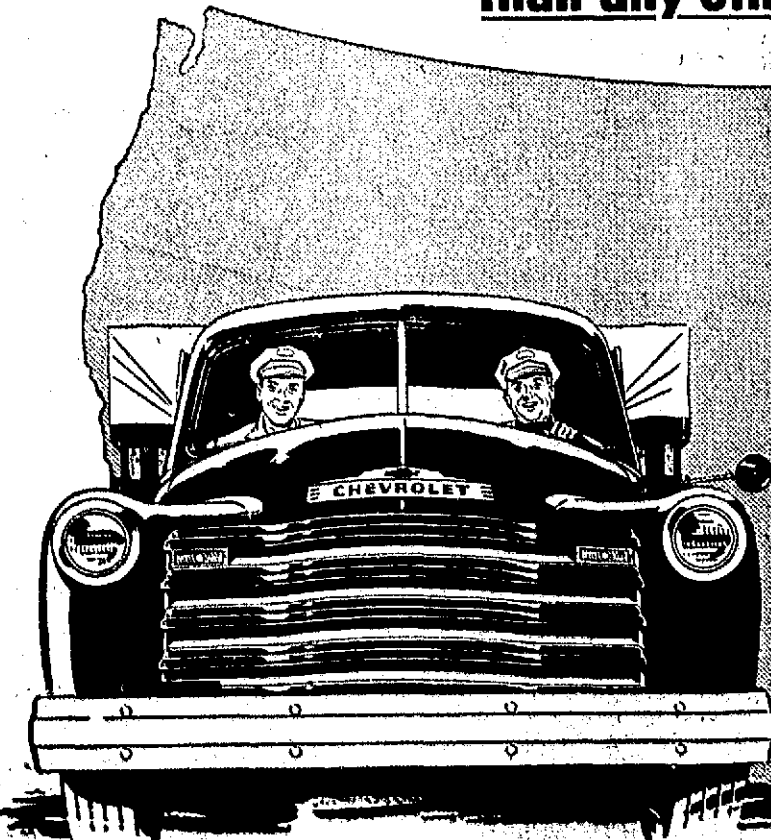

The cost of one treatment (including corn syrup) for the average-sized barn is approximately $1.25 or $1.50 per month for ten treatments. A month's supply of Lindane residual spray for the same area would cost a few cents less, but the expense of equipment and labor puts the ORTHO Fly Killer treatment well under residual spray costs.

The new fly killer is available now in wholesale and retail outlets handling ORTHO products.

TRUCK USERS BUY MORE CHEVROLET TRUCKS than any other make!

No matter the size or type of truck you need — what better proof could there be that a Chevrolet truck is your best buy!

MORE CHEVROLET TRUCKS IN USE THAN ANY OTHER MAKE!

Recently published official registration figures for the last full year show that truck users in every single State bought more Chevrolets than any other make!

It is difficult to imagine more convincing proof of Chevrolet's superiority, for such clear-cut and overwhelming preference can lead to but one conclusion: Chevrolet trucks must be better, must enjoy solid advantages over other trucks. Such preference must rest on a firm foundation of good, sound value. And, of course, it does — as owners of Chevrolet trucks can testify.

So before you buy any truck, see how much more Chevrolet trucks offer you. Stop in and see us soon. Continuation of standard equipment and trim illustrated is dependent on availability of material.
